1: Plan your day each day, the night before. Choose 3 important tasks you want to achieve the next day.

2: Never EVER miss Suhoor, wake up at least 1 hour before Fajr and have a filling balanced meal.

3: Start working on your most important tasks right after Fajr and get at least 1 or 2 of them done.

4: Try to get an afternoon nap, not more than 20 minutes either, just before Dhuhur or after Dhuhur.

5: Plan your life around Salah times, not the other way round!

6: BLOCK at least 1 hour for reciting the Qur'an each day.

7: Break your fast with dates and milk or dates and water, go pray Maghrib, then come back for a light meal.

8: Give lots of "Physical Sadaqah"; get involved in organising community iftars, charity drives, helping orphans, etc.. Earn blessings in working for others.

9: Don't miss an opportunity for Dawah! When someone asks you why you're not eating, give them a beautiful explanation of Ramadan and Islam.
